

The 'Turret House' is a three-story white building with a distinctive corner turret. The turret has a dark roof and several windows. The building is located on a street corner, and the surrounding area includes other buildings and utility poles.